

It is absolutely imperative that our media (radio, broadcast, newspapers, etc) remain free of corporation take-overs. Creating a monopoly within our media outlets by allowing cross-over purchasing by corporations destined to control the flow of news to the American people, places our freedom of the press at very great peril.